UX Day 4 Brand Guidelines

What is a Brand Guide?

A brand guide is set of rules that defines how a company presents itself. It's used to ensure that every piece of information related to the brand is consistent and recognizable.

This covers the logo, fonts, and colors at a minimum, but in larger companies, it could apply to photography, packaging, vehicle wraps, signage, and more. Pretty much anything you can imagine with a companies logo on it can have a brand standard associated with it.
